

Alarming Reality

April 27th, 2006

The North Vietnam Communist government has declared common law marriages detrimental to the state and has, thus, gone from house to house to urge its citizens to have a civil marriage. The marriage licenses were offered free and 350,000 couples marched to the altar to date.

Comment: do you think that we may learn from this before its too late for this post Christian society? How long will God tolerate this lawlessness? We plead with society to humble itself and come back to God before it's too late. Perhaps it is needful to determine who you should follow and who your friends are in this Laodicean stretch of the end times.

Matt. 11:23, 24 “And thou Capernaum, (Canada) which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained unto this day. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement, than for thee.”

Luke 17:28, 30 “Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.”

Luke 21:28 “And when these things begin to come to pass, than look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.”

Where lays the root of the downward trend of the society of this great nation? It is not the land that has gone bad, but the people in it. My privilege, in ministry, has been to travel most all its major routes and many of the secondary roads. As a matter of fact God has led me into areas where there were no roads and walked trails and railroad tracks in order to preach His message of salvation which comes through faith in Christ Jesus. Man's defiance of the laws of God has to have consequences sooner or later. There has to be reversal in the hearts of the people of this great nation from the voter to the politician, from the pulpit to the pew, from the teacher to the student. The deviance of the sexual practices of man has to be acknowledged as sin as all other defiance shown in the rejection of the laws of God. The rejection of Jesus Christ is the height of man's rebellion. An analogy would be the rejection of the cure for cancer, if there was one, which was 100% sure. The mercies of God have lasted so long that man seems to have dispelled the thought that there ever will be a judgement day. God informs us, that when this assumption is rampant, His coming is very close. Consider Matthew 24:44 "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."
