

So the Bible is “Hate Literature!!!”

October 27th, 2006

Since it is the intent of some with high profiles before men and who may well be damned before God would have the Bible banned as “Hate Literature,” I offer the following clarification:

The Bible contains the horrific deeds of sinful men since the fall of creation through Satan’s lie, as recorded in Genesis 3. God has said whatever man would do in secret. He would have shouted from the rooftops. Men blame God for the many atrocities that nature and fallen man perpetrates against creation with the statement, “If there is a loving God, why does He allow such destruction?” The fact of man’s sinfulness demands a just God to meet out appropriate justice. To do this the case must be heard; therefore it is written factually in full detail in the Bible thus justifying God’s actions against sinful humanity. The Nazis stricken their names from all indictable papers so that they could not be prosecuted. The president of Romania burned all the papers that may have indicted him of any criminal activity before he was executed by his own people. Enron shredded many papers and records so that its CEOs could not be prosecuted. God keeps and relates the records so that man will see his need of a substitute, Jesus Christ as Saviour. To stand before God, he will be prosecuted for his crimes against a Holy God and society.

Parallel to the above, “civilized” nations have courts in which all the evidence is heard and recorded and is registered and followed by the sentence the crime demands. Many of the details of some crimes are not declared because of their immensity and horror. For instance, how a sex deviant has mutilated a child. The charges are heard and the sentence is demanded.

When all the evils of society over the hundreds of years fills “the cup of iniquity,” God could hold back no longer, therefore the flood, the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and whatever will yet occur since man has not repented. God informs us that the books will be opened and every detail of man's behaviour is being recorded awaiting its due reward. God has shown the treachery that is lodged in the heart of man, which is imprinted upon every man's conscience by the Holy Spirit so that he may run to Jesus Christ for mercy. We repeat; it is not the intelligence of man that denies these truths because the evidence is overwhelming, but his immoral state from which he will not depart due to his pride and lustful self. Interestingly, in the lead of seeking to have the Bible banned as "Hate Literature" is a prominent homosexual. May God have mercy on his soul! May we seek God on bended knee for a mighty Holy Spirit revival, which God has sent in years past to prepare the saints for national calamities that may be forthcoming or to avert one. Jv/dV.

NOTE: Nero was playing his fiddle while Rome was burning. He placed the blame on a minority group known as "Christians" of which many were martyred, hung in his garden after having been dipped in tar to burn. Since men's hearts do not change apart from God's redeeming work, we had better not be playing the fiddle in the critical times of our age. Jv/dV
